Introduction

Drum sets and cymbals are available in a wide range of prices, but unlike most other instruments, you can buy drum equipment one piece at a time if you want and build your kit as your budget allows. So, one of the first things you need to consider when contemplating purchasing new drum equipment is your budget.

You can start with as little as a new snare drum for your old kit, some new cymbals, or some new hardware. All of which can be purchased on eBay!

Obviously, most of what you can purchase on eBay is previously owned, which isn't all bad, especially if you can get a fantastic deal. But, most drummers want new stuff, and unfortunately, new stuff usually comes with a higher price tag.

The BEST Resource to Buy Brand New Drum Equipment

While it is true that most new stuff usually comes with a higher price tag, I know of one resource where you can get brand new, top name brand drum equipment at the lowest possible prices!

If you happen to see a lower, publicly advertised delivered price, they'll beat it. And if you see a lower, publicly advertised delivered price within 30 days after your order has been shipped, they'll refund you the difference!

Very few of their customers ever report finding lower prices because they review major national catalogs and competing websites to guarantee they will always have the lowest prices!

They also offer super low shipping costs, and sometimes even FREE shipping on many items! Plus, you'll never get last-minute surprise shipping costs. They show you your shipping costs almost everywhere they show you a product on their site!

This tremendous company does not even collect sales tax, except for packages shipped to New Jersey, where it is required by law!

So, who is this company? It is zZounds Music?
<http://tinyurl.com/yvpx67>

zZounds Music is an authorized US dealer offering top name brand drum equipment brand new from the factory. With an inventory about 50 times bigger than a typical musical instrument retail store, chances are they will have what you're looking for!

zZounds consistently outscores its most frequently shopped competitors on BizRate.com. In fact, zZounds rated so well with BizRate.com that they were recognized with the prestigious "Circle of Excellence Award!" Over 3,000 quality, consumer-rated online merchants from the BizRate Shopping Search Engine were considered for the awards!

The awards are based on the direct feedback, collected at the point-of-sale and after delivery of goods, from customers concerning seven key satisfaction metrics including: Overall Satisfaction, Product Selection, Ease of Finding Products, Repurchase Intent, Product Met Expectations, On-time Delivery and Customer Support.

Currently, zZounds Music has over 425,000 satisfied customers!

Why So Many Happy Customers?

With guaranteed lowest prices on brand name music equipment, same-day, low cost, and sometimes, even free shipping, no sales tax (except in New Jersey), and personalized customer service from non-commission paid musicians by toll-free phone, email, or live chat, is it any wonder why zZounds Music has so many satisfied customers?
